Interactive Benefits Communication

Why It's Important

ALEX explains high-deductible plans to your employees. The results: increased HDHP plan migration and HSA contributions, and lower payroll taxes for you.

Employee benefit questions don't stop once enrollment is over. ALEX can answer them all year long, which gives you time to do other important work.

ALEX delivers consistent benefits messaging to employees on every schedule, in every department.

ALEX helps highlight the value of new plan options in a consistent message delivered in plain English.

Integrated decision support helps employees make the best benefits choice for them and their family.

Employees Benefit

ALEX Benefits Counselor is a one-on-one conversation that teaches employees how to select and use their benefits.

ALEX personalizes explanations to help employees pick the benefits that make sense for them, saving them (and you) a lot of money.

If employees can find the internet ALEX can help them and can be accessed from any device, any time.

Talking to ALEX lets employees compare out-of-pocket costs for multiple plans.
