The business also sells critical illness, accidental death and dismemberment and other ancillary coverages and provides plan administrative services in connection with its insurance coverages.

How We Work Together

Prudential has partnered with PlanSource to offer their products on our benefits shopping and enrollment platform. PlanSource offers a pre-established integration for Prudential products that makes it easy to setup and support. Because of the arrangement with Prudential, PlanSource offers a reduced cost of the platform, based on enrolled employees, making the PlanSource system even more affordable.
